Intoxication Manslaughter Charges Pending in Fatality Incident

On Wednesday, December 23, 2020 at 7:40 p.m., Highland Village Police responded to a parking lot in the 1900 Block of Justin Road in reference to a motor vehicle injury accident. Preliminary investigation revealed a man and woman may have been involved in an argument in the parking lot. When the man attempted to drive away the woman was run over and sustained serious bodily injury. She was transported to Medical City Lewisville and later died from her injuries. The victim is identified as a 28 year old female from Fort Worth. The driver, John Cree, 22, of Highland Village was arrested at the scene with charges pending for Intoxication Manslaughter. Cree is also charged with Possession of a Controlled Substance Penalty Group 1, weight less than 4 grams (Poss CS PG 1>=1G<4G). Flower Mound Police are assisting with the accident investigation. As this investigation continues, additional charges could be added.
